What 'programs/strategies' are u using in ur classes? I'm using Jolly phonics for letters/sounds and 'sound city' #daily5

05-Nov-11 00:07 | kriceSD57

@kriceSD57 Our K classes use Jolly phonics. Most kids come to first grade with a pretty good handle on letters/sounds. #daily5

05-Nov-11 00:09 | Komos72

#daily5 any students who r reading/writing below grade level I schedule conferences w/each week opposed to 1 every 2 weeks for all others.

05-Nov-11 00:09 | webbscheers

05-Nov-11 00:09 | MrsMorgansClass

We don't use a particular program #Daily5

05-Nov-11 00:11 | soingirl

@webbscheers The couple that I have that are really struggling I see daily and sometimes more than once a day, but my class is small #Daily5

05-Nov-11 00:12 | soingirl

05-Nov-11 00:12 | MrsMorgansClass

05-Nov-11 00:12 | Komos72

@MrsMorgansClass And struggling readers more often? #daily5

05-Nov-11 00:13 | Komos72

I have a group of 4 that I need to meet with daily - low readers with poor comprehension. #daily5

05-Nov-11 00:13 | MrsMorgansClass

I also have a special education worker for an hour each morning who works with my lowest on sight words and phonics activities #Daily5

@kriceSD57 I remember you saying that. And it works well for you, yes? #daily5

05-Nov-11 00:17 | Komos72

@soingirl how much LA time do you have? #daily5

05-Nov-11 00:17 | soltauheiler

@soingirl I only have 1, but I have a total of three that I'd consider "struggling" at this point. #daily5

05-Nov-11 00:18 | Komos72

@Komos72 #daily5 Nice! do u meet with reading groups (strategy groups) or individuals during D5 rounds?

05-Nov-11 00:18 | webbscheers

I struggle because my grade 3s are well beyond grade lvl and the 2s are very weak...such a huge spread between them #Daily5

05-Nov-11 00:18 | soingirl

@webbscheers I've been meeting with groups (guided or strategy) but think I also need to meet with individuals then, too. #daily5

05-Nov-11 00:20 | soltauheiler

@soingirl you have needier than them? #daily5

05-Nov-11 00:21 | soltauheiler

#daily5 does anyone use the ACRA (atlantic Canada Reading Assessment) or something of the sort when assessing comp w/above p level readers?

05-Nov-11 00:21 | webbscheers

@soingirl It's always great to have someone else come in and assist the lower kids. #daily5

05-Nov-11 00:21 | MrsMorgansClass

We've divided out kids out between grade levels based on lexile levels. I only have 60 minutes thus only 3 rounds. #daily5

05-Nov-11 00:21 | AnlowaTeacher

05-Nov-11 00:23 | Komos72

@webbscheers never heard of it - do you have a link? #daily5

05-Nov-11 00:23 | soltauheiler

05-Nov-11 00:23 | soltauheiler

@Komos72 We are doing a lot of rereading too and making sure they have Good Fit books that we work on together #Daily5

RT @soltauheiler: what about assessments that folks use to identify strengths & weakness of reader? #daily5

05-Nov-11 00:33 | Komos72

@webbscheers @judykmck #daily5 For kids hesitant to read aloud @Aze_Cunliffe has a mirror on clsm wall for chn to read to

05-Nov-11 00:34 | brettelockyer

I also try hard to write notes to them in their writing books each night and make a big deal about their writing #Daily5

05-Nov-11 00:34 | soingirl

as LA teacher I used to use the Alberta Diagnostic reading test - it was good #daily5

05-Nov-11 00:34 | soltauheiler

Does anyone get their aide to work with the better readers instead, while the strugglers get more time with the teacher? #daily5

05-Nov-11 00:35 | judykmck

@soingirl I think that's part of why blogging is so powerful for writers. It gives them that authentic audience & feedback! #daily5

05-Nov-11 00:35 | Komos72

Sometimes too I find if I pull them at the beginning of the round where they pick writing to help them get started it helps #Daily5

05-Nov-11 00:35 | soltauheiler

@Komos72 @soltauheiler We use the Observation Survey when kids turn 6. Developed by Marie Clay, who also developed #readingrecovery #daily5

05-Nov-11 00:36 | judykmck

@judykmck I have always tried to do this (but doesn't always happen)- I find LA/aide & I all spending time w/those struggling ones #daily5

05-Nov-11 00:36 | soltauheiler

@judykmck That makes so much sense to me!! I've argued that point a LOT this yr, as well as getting add'l support for "high" rdrs. #daily5

05-Nov-11 00:37 | Komos72

@kriceSD57 #daily5 <http://t.co/cw4jM8Hh> full of excellent card games. So important to get the 'hearing sounds' bit 1st

05-Nov-11 00:37 | brettelockyer

I'm always careful to anchor my work w/struggling readers to books/text. So important to put skills in context! #daily5

05-Nov-11 00:38 | Komos72

@soltauheiler I used the Words Their Way assessment at the beginning of the year #Daily5

05-Nov-11 00:39 | soingirl

@judykmck I so wish that others in my building understood/believed that, too. Our most at-risk kids work w/least trained adults. #daily5

05-Nov-11 00:39 | Komos72

@judykmck Good choice, tchr works w those who most need it, while aide can facilitate a #daily5 classrm full of independent learners!

05-Nov-11 00:40 | brettelockyer

@soltauheiler @soingirl I need to get that book. Has been mentioned so much recently! #daily5

05-Nov-11 00:40 | Komos72

also the oral language piece - if these language skills aren't developed/experience is weak it's hard to understand how "books work" #daily5

05-Nov-11 00:40 | soltauheiler

@soingirl w/1's I usually wait a little while - don't do it right away... but reminds me I better get on it #daily5

05-Nov-11 00:41 | soltauheiler

Finding the the Starfall Learn to Read <http://t.co/UoWbGrUL> sight is really great for 1 of my little ones #Daily5

05-Nov-11 00:41 | soingirl

Also have my volunteers work through those sight words EVERY time - helps to recognize some words in text #daily5

05-Nov-11 00:42 | soltauheiler

@soingirl I haven't spent much time on starfall - going to check it out #daily5

05-Nov-11 00:42 | soltauheiler

Wow, I can't spell tonight...maybe I need wine #Daily5

05-Nov-11 00:42 | soingirl

@soingirl I have some here..... #daily5

05-Nov-11 00:43 | soltauheiler

@judykmck #daily5 Obs Survey v powerful, n focuses on natural reading behaviours. It's what we do with the info collected that counts.

05-Nov-11 00:43 | brettelockyer

@soltauheiler He loves the intro games, stories, and even the follow up written activity that matches the story #Daily5

05-Nov-11 00:43 | soingirl

@soingirl Hmmm... wine and chocolate... #daily5

05-Nov-11 00:43 | Komos72

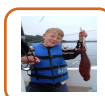

@webbscheers I love when they write me back or ask me question too :) #Daily5

05-Nov-11 00:45 | soingirl

I mentioned D5 a lot at conferences w/parents this week. Lots of "aha" moments around building stamina w/kids, struggling or not. #daily5

05-Nov-11 00:46 | Komos72

in our system our LA/RT teachers are more supposed to be more trained than general classroom teacher #daily5

05-Nov-11 00:46 | soltauheiler

@soltauheiler @brettelockyer Yes. it's early days for those of you just into your year! #daily5

05-Nov-11 00:46 | judykmck

@brettelockyer I think clear expectations help with the fine line #Daily5

05-Nov-11 00:46 | soingirl

@brettelockyer can you explain this a little more? #daily5

05-Nov-11 00:46 | soltauheiler

@soingirl mine do that too...too funny. I have one that even used her own little sticky note. #daily5

05-Nov-11 00:46 | webbscheers

Wow! RT @soltauheiler in our system our LA/RT teachers are more supposed to be more trained than general classroom teacher #daily5

05-Nov-11 00:47 | judykmck

@webbscheers I love that! I think those connections are so important #Daily5

05-Nov-11 00:47 | soingirl

@webbscheers @soingirl Do you use sticky notes to comment or write directly in their notebooks/journals? #daily5

05-Nov-11 00:47 | Komos72

@brettelockyer This year, I've focused a lot on reflecting after rounds to help place the responsibility in their hands. #daily5

05-Nov-11 00:49 | Komos72

@Komos72 I usually write in the side margin, or the top margin (which I call the teacher space). #Daily5

05-Nov-11 00:49 | soingirl

@judykmck They are suppose to have specialized training... of course classroom teachers know these Ss better #daily5

05-Nov-11 00:49 | soltauheiler

@soingirl Oh, I like that! #daily5

05-Nov-11 00:50 | Komos72

@Komos72 #daily5 I use lg square size sticky notes. That way kids can move them 2 continue writing & I find it respectful of their work too

05-Nov-11 00:50 | webbscheers

@webbscheers I'm thinking of starting with commenting on sticky notes to teach kids how to comment on others' blog posts. #daily5

05-Nov-11 00:52 | Komos72

@brettelockyer I agree! #daily5

05-Nov-11 00:52 | Komos72

@webbscheers It works really well for us and is plenty of room #Daily5

05-Nov-11 00:52 | soingirl
